You can have some of my star bits! They are honey flavoured shards of rock!

OH! You wouldn't happen to have 50 or more?

Oh...sorry. I just ate the 50th. Not like I'd give you the Power Up anyway.

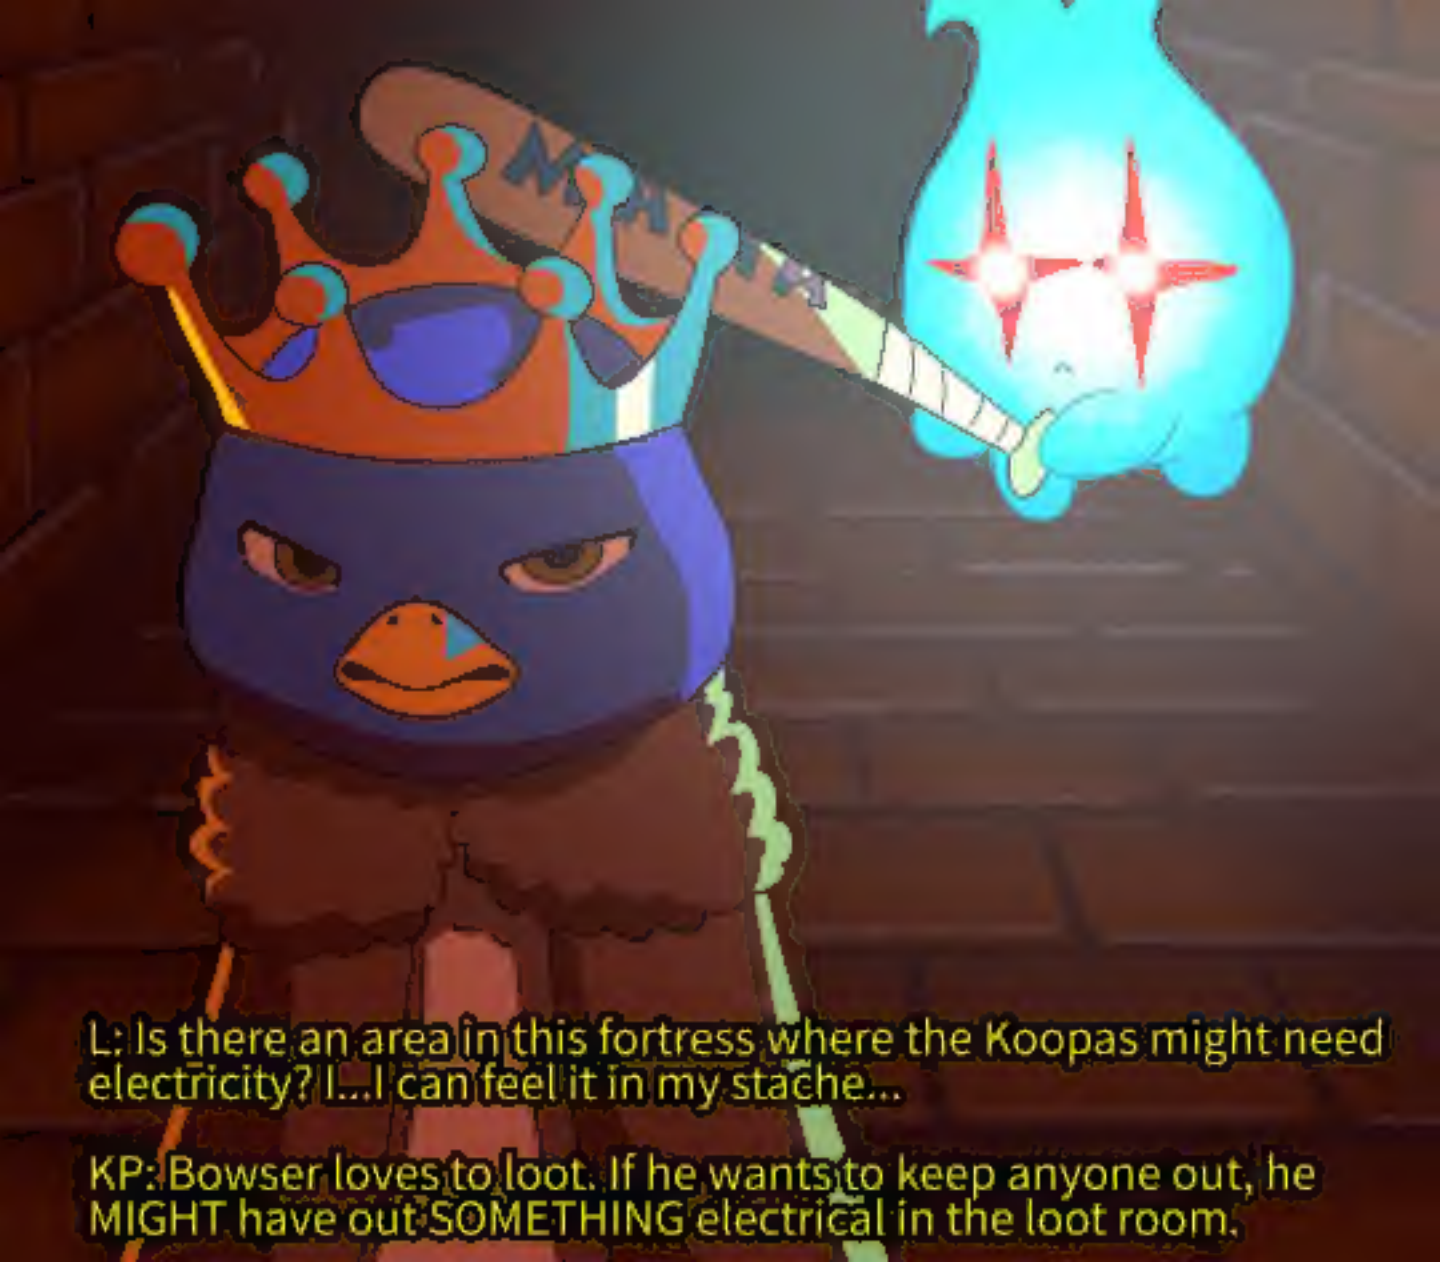
You GREEDY LITTLE HEATHEN. Some of us are perishable and NEED the assistance of RARE power ups!

The only way you're getting my 1-Up is over my actual dead body!

Then let me STRANGLE YOU!

Mama will come for you if you do.

L: Hey, um, KP? I've got a question.
KP: Yes? Ask me anything!



L: Is there an area in this fortress where the Koopas might need electricity? I...I can feel it in my stache...
KP: Bowser loves to loot. If he wants to keep anyone out, he MIGHT have out SOMETHING electrical in the loot room.

A LOOT ROOM? My tool box may be inside!
